

5 From State 'Most Wanted'

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Leonard Peltier, added to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's 10 most wanted fugitives list Monday, became the fifth person with Wisconsin ties on the list.

Peltier was indicted Nov. 25 at Rapid City, S.D., in connection with the fatal shootings of two FBI agents. He also is sought on a federal warrant charging unlawful flight to avoid prosecution in an alleged 1972 murder attempt on a Milwaukee police officer.

Peltier, 31, a Grand Forks, N.D., native and member of the American Indian Movement, is the only one of four persons sought in connection with the South Dakota shootings who remains at large. He also was indicted following an Oregon incident last November on nine counts of violating the National Firearms Act.

Others with Wisconsin ties on the FBI most wanted list are Dwight A. Armstrong, 24; Leo F. Burt, 27; David S. Fine, 23, and Benjamin Paddock, 49.

Armstrong, Burt and Fine are sought in connection with a fatal 1970 bombing at the University of Wisconsin campus in Madison.

Paddock, a Sheboygan native, has been on the list since 1969 after escaping from federal custody. He had been serving a 20-year sentence for a bank robbery in Phoenix, Ariz.

Explosion Injures 5

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Sparks dropping into a drum containing alcohol were blamed for triggering an explosion and fire Monday that left five foundry workers injured, one of them with critical burns.

Michael Switalski, 33, of Milwaukee remained in critical condition at St. Mary's Hospital Sunday night. Three workers were in satisfactory condition under treatment for burns and another was released after treatment for a back injury.
